

Damaris staff profile

Name: DAMARIS KARIUKI

Title/Qualification: ongoing PhD: MEd

Department: EDUCATIONAL MANAGEMENT

Designation/Position: TUTORIAL FELLOW

Email: kariuki.damaris@ku.ac.ke

Contact Address: 43844 NAIROBI

Area of Specialization: Education Management

Research Interests:

Education policy

Teacher training and professional development

School leadership

Conference/Workshops/Seminar Papers

2018 Presented a paper on “the Uptake of Technology in the Teaching and Learning; A case of Kenyatta University School of Education’ in the 2nd biennial conference organized by Commission for University Education in Kenya held between 30th October to 2nd November at the Kenya School of Monetary studies

2018- Presented a paper on ‘Teacher perceptions of their professional development ; a case of Kirinyaga County’ at the 3rd international conference on “Re-weaving Education to meet the Demands of the 21st Century held between 16-21st September 2018 at Kenyatta University

Research

Ongoing research on ‘Effect of teacher professional development on KCPE achievement in Kirinyaga County’ 2013-Research assistant (KU & McGill University) on ‘Effects of Housing on Safety of Children Violence & Housing Evaluation Project in Kenya

2012-Research assistant in a study funded by FAWE on Girl Specific Focus and Boys Participation, Performance and Construction of Masculinities in selected schools in Kenya

2007 research project on ‘factors influencing performance of English in day secondary schools in Kirinyaga central sub county’

Community Service and Other Engagements

2004-2010 committee member of the Mothers’ Union at ACK st Thomas Cathedral, Kerugoya
ACK St Thomas cathedral Estate leader

